

PRESS RELEASE

Fintech lender TradeBridge expands global eCommerce team

08 February 2020: Fast-growing London fintech lender TradeBridge has announced a number of senior hires and promotions as it scales up its specialist eCommerce lending activities internationally.

Grant Fraser has been appointed director of global eCommerce sales, and will be supported in this role by Stephanie Frackowiak in Paris, and Zhijian Wu in Singapore.

Mark Coxhead, CEO of TradeBridge, said of the new appointment:

“TradeBridge is already a leader in data-driven funding solutions built for eCommerce ecosystems. Now we have a huge opportunity to accelerate our eCommerce business and Grant is the perfect person to drive this forward. With his fintech, consulting and engineering background, he is well-placed to deliver tailored solutions to our eCommerce partners.”

Grant Fraser said:

“I love that TradeBridge is able to provide funding solutions well beyond the capabilities of traditional banking. I’m excited to be leading an international team which will be building more partnerships with globally recognized marketplaces and eCommerce businesses.”

Background: TradeBridge

Fintech lender TradeBridge was founded in 2013, by three friends with backgrounds in finance and technology. Its mission: to deploy technology and capital into areas of the global economy under-appreciated by traditional banks, and give ambitious businesses the freedom to grow. A few years on, with over $3bn transacted across its platform, TradeBridge is a story of fintech success. Headquartered in central London it has offices in Paris and Singapore.
